Mathematics is a unique symbolic language in which the whole world works and acts accordingly. This text book is an attempt to make learning of Mathematics easy for the students community.

Mathematics is not about numbers, equations, computations or algorithms; it is about understanding

— William Paul Thurston

The main goal of Mathematics in School Education is to mathematise the child's thought process. It will be useful to know how to mathematise than to know a lot of Mathematics.

00_8th_Front Pages_FM.indd 3 20/11/2022 12:43:21