Thus in course of time, administrative headquarters emerged as the most important towns and cities of the country. For example, by the beginning of 20th century, Calcutta, Bombay and Madras had become the leading administrative commercial and industrial cities of India. These cities became the central commercial area with buildings of European style. Sub urban railways, tram car and city buses gave the colonial cities a new look and status.

Recap

- The evolution of urban settlements has occurred in different ways and in different stages.
- In ancient times towns emerged around king's palaces. During medieval times the towns functioned either fort city or port city.
- With the extension of domination British developed new towns depending on its location, purpose and resources.
- In the late 18th century Calcutta, Bombay and Madras rose as Presidency cities.
- Chennai was once a group of villages. Sir Francis Day of the East India Company was granted land in 1639 to setup factory which later came to be known as Chennai.
- On 17th July 1996, Madras was officially renamed as Chennai.
